What do you like most of all at St Luke's

The entrance through the playground gates where the teachers greet you in the morning.

Friendly and welcoming.

Playground has different areas for different games.

Equipment that is provided for the children.

Kindness and friendship.

Residential journeys.

Golden tokens!

Discovering all the new areas of learning and learning new vocabulary.

Experiments, activities and demonstrations that we do in science lessons.

School dinners.

Worship.

The amount of effort teachers put in to their teaching.

Playing with friends.

Lots of equipment to play with.

Games in Breakfast Club.

Interactive lessons that make you think.

DT projects.

The library and being able to use the space at lunchtime.

The desserts at lunch.

The astroturf on the lower playground.

The trim trail

Playing PE tournaments and choice of sports.

We get to go on lots of school trips.

Chromebooks and iPads.

Great books available in the library.

The teachers are kind and supportive.

Good range of clubs.

Going to swimming lessons.

Reward systems (raffle tickets).

The pupils are kind and there's always someone to talk to if you feel down.

Access to so many computers.

After school club.

The kind children and staff.

St Luke's would be even better if...

More trees.

Even more trips.

Bigger lunches.

Each class had an animal for a term.

*A 'fun day' (not proper lessons)
once a term.*

More coding.

More dressing up opportunities.

A prayer room.

More active lessons with fun activities.

A room for art and DT.

Monkey bars on the trim trail.

Fruit juice at lunchtimes instead of water.

Longer morning breaktime.

More themed weeks.

A ball pit!

More of the grassy wall in the library.

More playground equipment.

A school pet.

A proper science lab.

Astroturf in the compound.

Waffles sometimes instead of chips on Fridays.

Our own swimming pool.

A trampoline for gymnastics.
